No. 1273

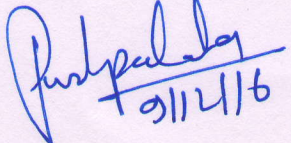

Date: 9/12/16

NOTICE

In light of a complaint received in this office dt. 08 December 2016, case name PYA110, students are once again sternly warned not to indulge in any sort of ragging as to cause harassment, mental or physical to the aggrieved. As already notified, circulated and repeatedly counseled to the students, ragging is a punishable crime and anyone found indulging in this heinous act will be dealt with iron hand. Even hon'ble Supreme Court of India has issued notice in this context that an act of ragging is punishable under the provisions of law.

Anti-ragging committee is eternally vigilant in the campus and at any time the guilt is established, the matter will be immediately reported to the Senior Suptd. Police, Bhagalpur. The students are further advised to help the college administration create and maintain harmony, peace and sanity in the campus.
